ould be issued to raise money to build log sluices, drive piling and make boomage up river, and were negotiated with the First National Bank of St. Paul. Now some of the defendants claim that they did not intend to join them and they obtained an injunction to restrain the sale or disposition of those bonds, claiming that the proceeds had been used for other purposes. The record shows that in the Journal refers to was being taken here, the District Court dissolved the injunction, appearing by the answer of the Mississippi River Bridge & Road Co., that the bonds had been regularly issued and properly applied. Ambrose Tighe, Esq., of St. Paul, is attorney for plaintiffs, and Judge Geo. E. Young, of St. Paul, presided at the trial in this city.

The case was argued by the attorneys appeared for the defendants.

The defendants regard the suit as one of annoyance merely, and without foundation in law. Of course, their testimony takes shape beyond question, and it is not worth venting in the dam and boomage.

THE

most popular travelers between the Twin Cities & Chicago take this line—practically favoring it over all others—because it carries the best cars and coaches ever built, and also, because it has the shortest travel time. It is the superior portion of the line, between Minneapolis and Chicago, and it is the fastest. Pullman sleepers are run on night trains, and Pullman day coaches on day trains.

NORTHWESTERN

Pullman sleepers are also run through between Chicago and St. Paul. Through cars are also run between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago. Pullman sleepers St. Paul to Omaha and Kansas City, and Pullman sleepers Chicago to St. Paul and between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago, and between St. Paul and Kansas City, being the line.

LINE

These principal cities, the Chicago & Northwestern are the line composed of the Chicago & Northwestern, the Chicago & St. Paul, the Chicago & Western, and Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley all added to the line. It is the line of the rich and populous country, and it is the line of the country interested in the quickest means of travel. It is the line of the country interested in the shortest means of travel. It is the line of the country interested in the best means of travel. Before selecting a route, travelers should consult the time table of the line. They will find the advantages offered. And they will find the line of the country interested in the shortest means of travel.

County Treasurer Frater, we opine, did the most flourishing business in the city, on Wednesday and Thursday, these being the last days to pay personal tax and escape a penalty of ten per cent.

Christina Gullstrand died of Consumption at her home on Norway street in this city on Tuesday Feb. 26th, aged 31 years. Her remains were buried in Evergreen cemetery at 3 p.m. Wednesday.

R. H. Beaulieu, editor of the White Earth Progress, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Beaulieu says the Progress has suspended publication because it had no support whatever. This seems to be a pretty good reason.

Joe Cohen, now a resident of the Zenith City stopped off on his way to the western part of the state on Wednesday. Joe has many friends here who are glad to see him at all times.

Frank Johnson intends to make a trip through California, Oregon and Washington Territory early in the spring. He will leave Brainerd about April 1st, and may return by the way of the Southern Pacific.

There will be a business meeting of Y. M. C. A. auxiliary, with Mrs. Ferris, Monday afternoon, March 4th, at 3 o'clock. All are invited.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a box social at Mrs. Cressey's, Sixth street north, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Spears, of Brainerd, was in the village Saturday. He went from here to Valdena to preach in the place of the Rev. C. B. Fellows, who remained at Bernha on Sunday—Vernadale Journal.

N. H. Ingersoll, one of the proprietors of the Brainerd, (Minn.) Dispatch came down to visit his parents at Plover on Thursday. Next is spending the winter at St. Paul, as clerk of the Grain and Warehouse Committee of the assembly.—Stevens Point (Wis.) Journal.

Severn Koop and bride of Brainerd, Minn., are in the city guests of H. N. Richardson and wife. They are on their way to Chicago on their wedding trip. Mrs. Koop and Mrs. Richardson are leaving for Minneapolis on Sunday.

The second annual ball of the I. M. U. at the Armory last Tuesday evening was well attended, notwithstanding the extremely cold weather, and was a great success both socially and financially.

Aldhild Eilertson, a six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Eilertson, died at the residence of her parents in this city, on Thursday Feb. 28th, of consumption. Her remains will be buried in Evergreen cemetery to-morrow.

The ladies of the Relief society wish to express their thanks to Mayor Hemstead and the other gentlemen who so kindly placed in the bank, for the benefit of the poor, the proceeds of the charity ball, amounting to $67.25.

C. H. Bevington, who was employed in this city several months last summer as a dispatcher for the N. P., returned to this city Monday, and will probably accept his old position. Mrs. Bevington and son returned with him.

The bill to authorize the council to issue bonds, and also the one to legalize the action of the council in guaranteeing the payment of the Electric light bonds, have been passed by both houses of the legislature, and probably signed by the governor before this.

The Smith Costume company, of Minneapolis, has a well earned reputation of having the finest line of costumes this side of Chicago. Call at Mrs. M. H. Pennell's dressmaking parlors, over Campbell & Smith's store, and inspect the fine costumes from that establishment.

Dr. D. P. Bigger, who has been residing in St. Paul in needy circumstances for several months past, has made a raise of $1,000 on his life insurance policy, consequently the genial doctor and his affectionate son, will be in clover for some time. The doctor, according to the Pioneer Press has left St. Paul to visit a sister in Des Moines Iowa, whom he has not seen for 17 years.

For Rent. I would like to rent my residence property for one year to suitable parties. Enquire evenings at residence from Mrs. SARAH L. SLEEPER.

Masquerade Ball. The masquerade ball to be given at the Armory next Monday evening by The Thirteen Club, promises to be a great success, as we understand most of our prominent society people have declared their intention of making and being present. A customer from Minneapolis will arrive in the city to-morrow with costumes of every description, and will remain until the day after the ball, consequently all who desire can secure costumes. He will make his headquarters at Mrs. Pennell's dressmaking rooms in the Hartley block. Supper for the occasion will be served at the Arlington Hotel. To gain admittance to the Armory gentlemen must present invitations and ladies must have the card which accompanied the invitation.

Dread Diphtheria. The home of Mr. and Mrs. August Kohlhaas has again been entered by the dread messenger of death, and this time their little daughter Elizabeth has been taken from their midst. She fell a victim to the dread disease diphtheria, with which all the children of the family, six in number, with the exception of the youngest, have been afflicted. Their oldest daughter died with this disease scarcely three weeks ago, and now they are called on to mourn the death of another. The rest of the children who have been afflicted are recovering rapidly. The remains of Little Elizabeth were buried in Evergreen cemetery yesterday. The unfortunate family have the sympathy of the entire community.

KIDNAPPED. Two Brainerd Girls Induced to Leave Home to go on the Stage by Promises of Big Salaries.

On Saturday night's train J. C. Bell and a man by the name of Bly, both of whom were connected with the home talent minstrel company that gave an entertainment here recently, left this city accompanied by two young girls, aged respectively 13 and 14 years, the girls having been induced to fly with them by promises of big pay as actresses in a show which they represented they were organizing. The girls were Emma Zottman and Mary Otto, the former being the step-daughter of Fred Zottman, the proprietor of the Nicollett House in this city, and the latter a dining room girl employed by Zottman. Bell and Bly, it seems, were assisted in their nefarious scheme by John Shupe, a young man who has been a resident of this city for some time, and who was on Tuesday arrested and arraigned before the municipal court on a charge of kidnapping. The girls, who were taken to St. Cloud by these disreputable curia, were followed by Mr. Zottman and brought back to this city on Monday, the men, on discovering that they were followed, having fled. At the preliminary examination of Shupe on Wednesday, Miss Zottman, who appears to be very bright and intelligent for a girl of 13 years, told the following story of how it all happened. She said she first met Bell the night of the show, being introduced to him by Shupe, who she and Mary Otto accompanied to the show, on which occasion Bell asked her if she wouldn't like to become an actress, telling her that he was organizing a show and would give both she and Miss Otto $25 a week and pay their expenses, if they would travel with him. With the aid of Shupe, who has been acquainted with the girls for some time, he succeeded in seeing the girls several times and urged them to leave home and go with him which they finally consented to do, it being understood that Shupe was to accompany them. On Saturday night the girls packed their clothes in a satchel and accompanied Shupe to the Wilkins House, where Shupe lives, where they met Bly, who was represented as the man who furnished the money for the concern. Here also Bell met them, and they waited for train time when they went over to the depot, but found the train late. They returned to the Wilkins House and remained until about 4:30, when they again went to the depot, where they remained until the train arrived at 6 o'clock in the morning which they boarded. When the train started Shupe got off, but said he would follow them to St. Cloud the next day. On arriving at St. Cloud the boys took the girls to the St. Charles hotel and registered their names as Kate Bell and Mary Bly, telling the girls they must represent themselves as their sisters. Miss Zottman said she suspected that everything was not all right but did not express her fears to any one but Mary until the next day, when she told the men that she wanted to go home. The men would not hear to anything of the kind and by threats kept her quiet. While out on the streets the men discovered that they were followed and fled, while the girls were found at the St. Charles by Mr. Zottman, who returned with them from St. Cloud Monday evening. On the following day a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Shupe, and as a result of the preliminary trial he has been held to await the action of the grand jury. Efforts are being made to discover the whereabouts of Bell and Bly, but so far have been of no avail. We understand Bell has a wife living in this city.

It has been rumored on the streets that the proposition of the Brainerd Board of Education to borrow thirty-five thousand dollars from the state had been rejected by the state officials. This is not true however, as the board having the matter in hand do not meet until Monday. We understand that the foundation for the rumor is a talk a prominent Brainerd resident had with one of the state officers who predicted that this would be the result.

On Saturday night's train J. C. Bell and a man by the name of Bly, both of whom were connected with the home talent minstrel company that gave an entertainment here recently, left this city accompanied by two young girls, aged respectively 13 and 14 years, the girls having been induced to fly with them by promises of big pay as actresses in a show which they represented they were organizing. The girls were Emma Zottman and Mary Otto, the former being the step-daughter of Fred Zottman, the proprietor of the Nicollett House in this city, and the latter a dining room girl employed by Zottman. Bell and Bly, it seems, were assisted in their nefarious scheme by John Shupe, a young man who has been a resident of this city for some time, and who was on Tuesday arrested and arraigned before the municipal court on a charge of kidnapping. The girls, who were taken to St. Cloud by these disreputable curia, were followed by Mr. Zottman and brought back to this city on Monday, the men, on discovering that they were followed, having fled. At the preliminary examination of Shupe on Wednesday, Miss Zottman, who appears to be very bright and intelligent for a girl of 13 years, told the following story of how it all happened. She said she first met Bell the night of the show, being introduced to him by Shupe, who she and Mary Otto accompanied to the show, on which occasion Bell asked her if she wouldn't like to become an actress, telling her that he was organizing a show and would give both she and Miss Otto $25 a week and pay their expenses, if they would travel with him. With the aid of Shupe, who has been acquainted with the girls for some time, he succeeded in seeing the girls several times and urged them to leave home and go with him which they finally consented to do, it being understood that Shupe was to accompany them. On Saturday night the girls packed their clothes in a satchel and accompanied Shupe to the Wilkins House, where Shupe lives, where they met Bly, who was represented as the man who furnished the money for the concern. Here also Bell met them, and they waited for train time when they went over to the depot, but found the train late. They returned to the Wilkins House and remained until about 4:30, when they again went to the depot, where they remained until the train arrived at 6 o'clock in the morning which they boarded. When the train started Shupe got off, but said he would follow them to St. Cloud the next day. On arriving at St. Cloud the boys took the girls to the St. Charles hotel and registered their names as Kate Bell and Mary Bly, telling the girls they must represent themselves as their sisters. Miss Zottman said she suspected that everything was not all right but did not express her fears to any one but Mary until the next day, when she told the men that she wanted to go home. The men would not hear to anything of the kind and by threats kept her quiet. While out on the streets the men discovered that they were followed and fled, while the girls were found at the St. Charles by Mr. Zottman, who returned with them from St. Cloud Monday evening. On the following day a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Shupe, and as a result of the preliminary trial he has been held to await the action of the grand jury. Efforts are being made to discover the whereabouts of Bell and Bly, but so far have been of no avail. We understand Bell has a wife living in this city.

It has been rumored on the streets that the proposition of the Brainerd Board of Education to borrow thirty-five thousand dollars from the state had been rejected by the state officials. This is not true however, as the board having the matter in hand do not meet until Monday. We understand that the foundation for the rumor is a talk a prominent Brainerd resident had with one of the state officers who predicted that this would be the result.

Two cows died from eating too many rotten potatoes down in Baldwin county, Georgia, recently.

In preaching against extravagance a western minister looked straight at one of the ladies who sat at $12 banquet, and she fainted dead away.

Last year there were 407 arrests for counterfeiting 146 convictions, and 165 discharged. Most of the counterfeiters are Italians.

In England for a fee of 25 cents any person can obtain at short notice the names of the shareholders of any stock company in that country.

A fund is being raised in San Francisco to found a memorial Garibaldi school, where Italian history can be taught to young Italian Americans.

Owing to the great use of the twine-binder in harvesting the consumption of hemp and similar fibers has increased 25 per cent. during the past year.

A feature of the late eclipse of the moon at Downville, Col., was a gorgeous rainbow ring that surrounded the moon. Inclosed were seven brilliant stars of the first magnitude.

The new palace of the Japanese emperor cost $3,968,231. The first estimate of the cost was $21,000,000, but it was reduced by order of the emperor.

The St. Louis Dispatch wants a law in that state to prevent any man from blowing a dinner horn except for legitimate purposes and at the dinner hour. They don't take to music in Missouri.

Mrs. J. Kellogg has not only been admitted to practice before the courts of Kansas, but has outgeneraled some of the best lawyers in the state and secured an income of $5,000 per year.

An American quack doctor sold some liquid on the streets of Paris which he warranted to relieve pain in any ailment. Some of those who were not relieved made a complaint and he was sent up for a year.

A Norwegian engineer looks leaks in a ship, while in dry dock, by filling the vessel with smoke. The leaks are soon shown by an escape of smoke, the process requiring only thirty or forty minutes.

It has lately been discovered by Dr. Herold, of the board of health of Newark, N. J., that many cases of lead poisoning result from the use of bottled soda water, the stoppers of which usually contain lead, which is dissolved by the soda-water.

It is against the law in Mexico for anyone to read a newspaper aloud; but no one cares for that, as few people want to read them anyhow. You cannot move news in Mexico by sitting down half an hour at popular cafe than you could get by reading a Mexican paper for a month.

George Elliott, of Baltimore, is probably the oldest aeronaut in the world. He began ballooning in 1834, and has made 127 ascents in all, in only one of which was seriously injured. His thigh was broken on this occasion, and he ceased his aerial flights. Now he is 84 years old and practices shoemaking.

Representatives Long of Massachusetts and Breckinridge of Kentucky recently attended a dinner party in Philadelphia and made speeches. The ex-Governor of Massachusetts, who is about to resume the practice of law, remarked: "Mr. Breckinridge is a distinguished member of the retiring Democratic party, while I am a retiring member of the distinguished Republican party."

Hartford, Conn., is proud of a railway flagman who has been at his post 27 years without an accident having happened at his crossing. Although his post is within the city's limits, yet he has not been into the city for 16 years and has never seen the new postoffice, begun in 1873, ceiling too tired, he says, after 12 hours' steady work every day in the year.

Wayne MacVeagh and Daniel Dougherty having removed to New York, the Philadelphian Ledger explains that they did so because they lacked excitement in the Quaker City. "In the civil courts of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania they had and have abundant employment, but they yearn for the excitement of defending great criminals, of whom there are none here. New York overflows with criminals of the deepest dye, hence Wayne MacVeagh and Daniel Dougherty go to New York."

A rather peculiar petition was presented to the Kansas house the other day, by Mr. Sherman, of Rooks county. It was from 132 citizens of that county. They want the legislature to make an appropriation for the purpose of securing artificial rainfall by means of cannonading. The petition was as follows: "We, your petitioners, many of us veterans of the late war, knowing from experience that heavy rainfalls followed each battle or cannonading, and believing that this fact indicates that man may produce rainfall by artificial perturbation of the atmosphere when otherwise it would not be experienced, and believing it would be wise for the state of Kansas to make a reasonable experiment in the matter of attempting to produce artificial rainfall, most respectfully ask you to make an appropriation out of the treasury for the purpose of securing artificers either by commanding or employing as may be deemed best."

General Review of the News of the Day Condensed from Associated Press.

Doings at Washington.

The senate amendments to the house bill for the taking of the census were introduced by Mr. Tamm. The amendments are those extending the scope of the inquiry as to the number of soldiers and sailors discharged from the army and navy, and for ascertaining the number of negroes, mulattoes, quadroons and octoroons and for ascertaining the record of insolvent private corporations and individuals.

The amendments were carried out by Feb. 28, is the emphatic injunction at the President Cleveland's order closing the several law offices in Kansas, Nebraska, Nevada, Wisconsin and Minnesota, and it rather emphasized the political purpose of the amendment in this case. It is utterly impossible for the registers and resolvers to pay the traps for the time, to say the least, of moving, and the very great row has been made by senators and representatives, and very many more are landing have been closed.

Although it is customary to give thirty days notice of the removal of a senator, it is not so in the case of a senator who is not a member of the senate. The removal of a senator is not a matter of course, but it is a matter of course that a senator who is not a member of the senate is not a member of the senate. The removal of a senator is not a matter of course, but it is a matter of course that a senator who is not a member of the senate is not a member of the senate.

Minor Casualties.

RAINERD, - MINNESOTA

Mrs. Lizzie McAnany and her two children were in the room when the explosion occurred. In the woman's mouth was a rubber tube connecting with the gas jet. The gas was ignited by a match which she had in her hand. It was deliberately planned to kill her two children and herself. She is the woman who shot her husband and a negro man, John Brown, in 1905. No indictment was found against her by the grand jury. She has suffered from a nervous breakdown since that time. One of the children found dead by her side was a boy three and a half years old, the other a girl and a negro boy.

A woman was arrested in Chicago in connection with the mysterious assassination of Senator J. C. Clark. She was discovered while looking over the dead man's private papers that he had for several years held unlawful possession of. She is a woman of 35, a traveling agent for the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad. Smith some time ago reported from the woman, presumably on her own confession, that she had been ascertained that a woman and man, whose movements were of a suspicious character,

Severn Koop and bride of Brainerd, Minn., are in the city guests of H. N. Richardson and wife. They are on their way to Chicago for their wedding trip. Mrs. Koop and Mrs. Richardson are old friends.—Stevens Point (Wis.) Journal.

The second annual ball of the I. M. U. at the Armory last Tuesday evening was well attended, notwithstanding the extremely cold weather, and was a great success both socially and financially.

Aldhild Eilertson, a six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Eilertson, died at the residence of her parents in this city, on Thursday Feb. 28th, of consumption. Her remains will be buried in Evergreen cemetery to-morrow.

The ladies of the Relief society wish to express their thanks to Mayor Hemstead and the other gentlemen who so kindly placed in the bank, for the benefit of the poor, the proceeds of the charity ball, amounting to $67.25.

C. H. Bevington, who was employed in this city several months last summer as a dispatcher for the N. P., returned to this city Monday, and will probably accept his old position. Mrs. Bevington and son returned with him.

The bill to authorize the council to issue bonds, and also the one to legalize the action of the council in guaranteeing the payment of the Electric light bonds, have been passed by both houses of the legislature, and probably signed by the governor before this.

The Smith Costume company, of Minneapolis, has a well earned reputation of having the finest line of costumes this side of Chicago. Call at Mrs. M. H. Pennell's dressmaking parlors, over Campbell & Smith's store, and inspect the fine costumes from that establishment.

Dr. D. P. Bigger, who has been residing in St. Paul in needy circumstances for several months past, has made a raise of $1,000 on his life insurance policy, consequently the genial doctor and his affectionate son, will be in clover for some time. The doctor, according to the Pioneer Press has left St. Paul to visit a sister in Des Moines Iowa, whom he has not seen for 17 years.

For Rent. I would like to rent my residence property for one year to suitable parties. Enquire evenings at residence from 6 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. SARAH L. SLEEPER. Masquerade Ball. The masquerade ball to be given at the Armory next Monday evening by The Thirteen Club, promises to be a great success, as we understand most of our prominent society people have declared their intention of masking and being present. A costume from Minneapolis will arrive in the city tomorrow with costumes of every description, and will remain until the day after the ball, consequently all who desire can secure costumes. He will make his headquarters at Mrs. Pennell's dressmaking rooms in the Hartley block. Supper for the occasion will be served at the Arlington Hotel. To gain admittance to the Armory gentlemen must present invitations and ladies must have the card which accompanied the invitation.

Dread Diphtheria. The home of Mr. and Mrs. August Kohlhaas has again been entered by the dread messenger of death, and this time their little daughter Elizabeth has been taken from their midst. She fell a victim to the dread disease diphtheria, with which all the children of the family, six in number, with the exception of the youngest, have been afflicted. Their oldest daughter died with this disease scarcely three weeks ago, and now they are called on to mourn the death of another. The rest of the children who have been afflicted are recovering rapidly. The remains of Little Elizabeth were buried in Evergreen cemetery yesterday. The unfortunate family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Hay for Sale. I have thirty tons of hay on marsh which I desire to sell. Enquire at residence, evenings between 6 and 9 p.m.

Mrs. SARAH L. SLEEPER. Miss Laura Turner, of Little Falls, is in the city visiting with the family of W. S. Martin.

Costumes for the Grand Masque Ball. Mrs. M. H. Pennell has made arrangements with the Smith Costume company to furnish the finest line of costumes, masques and wigs ever brought to this city. They will be on exhibition at her dressmaking parlors, at No. 6 old Hartley block, on Saturday afternoon, March 2, also on Monday, in charge of a customer from Minneapolis. Call early and leave your order.

KIDNAPED.

Two Brainerd Girls Induced to Leave Home to go on the Stage by Promises of Big Salaries.

On Saturday night's train J. C. Bell and a man by the name of Bly, both of whom were connected with the home talent minstrel company that gave an entertainment here recently, left this city accompanied by two young girls, aged respectively 13 and 14 years, the girls having been induced to fly with them by promises of big pay as actresses in a show which they represented they were organizing. The girls were Emma Zottman and Mary Otto, the former being the step-daughter of Fred Zottman, the proprietor of the Nicollet House in this city, and the latter a dining room girl employed by Zottman. Bell and Bly, it seems, were assisted in their nefarious scheme by John Shupe, a young man who has been a resident of this city for some time, and who was on Tuesday arrested and arraigned before the municipal court on a charge of kidnapping.

The girls, who were taken to St. Cloud by these disreputable cures, were followed by Mr. Zottman and brought back to this city on Monday, the men, on discovering that they were followed, having fled. At the preliminary examination of Shupe on Wednesday, Miss Zottman, who appears to be very bright and intelligent for a girl of 13 years, told the following story of how it all happened. She said she first met Bell the night of the show, being introduced to him by Shupe, who she and Mary Otto accompanied to the show, on which occasion Bell asked her if she would not like to become an actress, telling her that he was organizing a show and would give both she and Mary Otto $25 a week and pay their expenses, if they would travel with him. With the aid of Shupe, who has been acquainted with the girls for some time, he succeeded in seeing the girls several times and urged them to leave home and go with him, which they finally consented to do, it being understood that Shupe was to accompany them. On Saturday night the girls packed their clothes in a satchel and accompanied Shupe to the Wilkins House, where Shupe lives, where they met Bly, who was represented as the man who furnished the money for the concern. Here also Bell met them, and they waited for train time when they went to the depot, but found the train late. They returned to the Wilkins House and remained until about 4:30, when they again went to the depot, where they remained until the train arrived at 6 o'clock in the morning which they boarded. When the train started Shupe got off, but said he would follow them to St. Cloud the next day. On arriving at St. Cloud the boys took the girls to the St. Charles hotel and registered their names as Kate Bell and Mary Bly, telling the girls they must represent themselves as their sisters. Miss Zottman said she suspected that everything was not all right but did not express her fears to any one but Mary until the next day, when she told the men that she wanted to go home. The men would not hear of anything of the kind and by threats kept her quiet. While out on the streets the men discovered that they were followed and fled, while the girls were found at the St. Charles by Mr. Zottman, who returned with them from St. Cloud Monday evening. On the following day a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Shupe, and as a result of the preliminary trial he has been held to await the action of the grand jury. Efforts are being made to discover the whereabouts of Bell and Bly, but so far have been of no avail. We understand Bell has a wife living in this city.

It has been rumored on the streets that the proposition of the Brainerd Board of Education to borrow thirty-five thousand dollars from the state had been rejected by the state officials. This is not true however, as the board having the matter in hand do not meet until Monday. We understand that the foundation for the rumor is a talk a prominent Brainerd resident had with one of the state officers who predicted that this would be the result.
